VMT distributors - distribution is our passion and service is a tradition

Services

Whole Sale

Wholesale distributors play a crucial role in connecting manufacturers or suppliers with store owners. Finding the right wholesale distributor is important for businesses looking to source products at affordable prices, access a wide range of products, and establish reliable supply chains.

Direct Store Delivery (DSD)

For over 10 years, VMT DISTRIBUTORS has been bringing their customers the best products at the best price. VMT services everything from your local convenience store to large cash and carry establishments. VMT is always searching for the next new exciting item to bring to the market that we feel will sell best in the marketplace. VMT and their team has over 30 years experience in the food service industry enabling them to always help their customers find the right path to success in the marketplace. Be it our direct store distribution or our wholesale division, VMT is always striving to bring their customers the most profitable brands with the best service at the lowest price.
